FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE NUMBER: 237/17

Thank you for your request for information regarding caravan theft which has now been considered.

Applicant Question:

I would like the statistics for the amount of caravan thefts reported in the UK for 2015 and 2016.

NPCC Response:

Following the dissolution of the Association of Police Chief Officers (ACPO), designation under the Freedom of Information Act did not automatically transfer across to the National Police Chiefs’ Council (NPCC). The NPCC, as the new coordinating body, should clearly be open to the same level of scrutiny and transparency as its predecessor and it is anticipated that an Order to bring the NPCC under the auspices of FOIA will be forthcoming. This is currently the responsibility of the Cabinet Office and the NPCC is supporting the Cabinet Office in bringing forward the Order.

In the meantime, the NPCC will comply with the spirit of the Freedom of Information Act and will respond to all requests received as if it were still subject to FOIA. Applicants should note, however, that until the formal designation is in place and the legislation is amended to include the NPCC, the Internal Review process will remain in place but there is no legal basis to pursue complaints to the Information Commissioner’s Office.

The NPCC would have responded in the following way:

The NPCC does hold information captured by your request and I can advise that in 2015 there were 603 caravan thefts reported in the UK, and for 2016 809 caravan thefts reported in the UK.

Yours sincerely
