Thank you for your request for information regarding NAMP & NBPA Staff & Funding Information, which has now been considered.

Applicant Question:

Covering 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2025, in relation to the National Association of Muslim Police (NAMP) and the National Black Police Association (NBPA):

1. The total value of any grants, funding, or direct financial payments made to NAMP and to NBPA, broken down by year, recipient, and purpose.
2. The estimated value of any in-kind support provided (e.g. office space, equipment, administrative services).
3. The number of police officers/staff abstracted or seconded, in full or in part, to undertake work for NAMP or NBPA, broken down by year, including the proportion of working hours involved and the estimated salary cost.
4. Confirmation of which body bears the cost of this abstracted time (individual forces, Home Office, or NPCC).

NPCC Response:

By way of context national staff networks, including NAMP and NBPA, are independent organisations and do not form part of the NPCC.

1. The NPCC can confirm that funding has been provided to NAMP only during the period specified. Details are as follows:

November 2024

- £1,353.72 for NAMP-branded merchandise (including pens, banners, lanyards, badges and notepads)
- £1,200 for catering (corporate buffet for approximately 100 guests)

Total: £2,553.72

The funding supported activities intended to raise awareness of NAMP, facilitate engagement between policing and Muslim communities, and promote the sharing of best practice across forces and partner organisations.

March 2025

- Iftar event: £1,500 to contribute towards venue and catering costs for approximately 100 attendees. This event supports engagement between NAMP members, policing colleagues, partners and community representatives during Ramadan.
- Website maintenance: £500 towards annual maintenance of the NAMP website, which provides guidance, resources, and links to policing services including recruitment and reporting tools.

The NPCC holds no recorded information indicating that funding has been provided to the NBPA during this period.

2. The NPCC holds no recorded information indicating that it has provided any in-kind support to NAMP or NBPA during the period specified.
3. The NPCC holds no recorded information to indicate that any police officers or staff have been seconded or abstracted to undertake work on behalf of NAMP or NBPA.
4. The NPCC does not hold information relating to any costs associated with abstraction or secondment to these organisations. You may wish to direct your request to individual police forces, who may hold relevant information regarding the costs of any such arrangements.
