FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE NUMBER: 186/2022

Thank you for your request for information regarding Operation Hillman, which has now been considered.

Applicant Question:

On 19 May 2022, the Metropolitan Police announced that it had made 126 referrals to ACRO in connection with Operation Hillman, investigating breaches of Covid Regulations in Downing Street and Whitehall.

Requests:

1. How many of the fixed penalty notices issued as a result of those 126 referrals have been paid?
2. Of those that have not yet been paid, how many are still within the time allowed to pay?

NPCC Response:

The NPCC does hold the information captured by your request.

I can confirm that as of 24th May 2022, 115 Fixed Penalty Notice's have been paid. All remaining FPN's are still within the time limit allowed to pay.

COMPLAINT RIGHTS

Internal Review

If you are dissatisfied with the response you have been provided with, in compliance with the Freedom of Information legislation, you can lodge a complaint with NPCC to have the decision reviewed within 20 working days of the date of this response. The handling of your request will be looked at by someone independent of the original decision, and a fresh response provided.

It would be helpful, if requesting a review, for you to articulate in detail the reasons you are not satisfied with this reply.

If you would like to request a review, please write or send an email to NPCC Freedom of Information, c/o PO Box 481, Fareham, Hampshire, PO14 9FS.

If, after lodging a complaint with NPCC, you are still unhappy with the outcome, you may make an application to the Information Commissioner at the Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.
