FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE NUMBER: 227/2023

Thank you for your request for information regarding an Information Sharing Agreement; which has now been considered.

Applicant Question:

1. Can you inform me as to whether the Insolvency Service has an information sharing agreement with Police National Computer (PNC)
2. If so, when was the first signed.
3. Can you supply a copy if one exists

NPCC Response:

The NPCC does not hold information captured by your request.

The NPCC does not hold an Information Sharing Agreement between the Insolvency Service with the Police National Computer (PNC).

Outside of the Act, and as a gesture of good will in wishing to be open and transparent, ACRO does hold an Information Sharing Agreement (ISA) between the National Police Chiefs' Council ACRO Criminal Records Office and Insolvency Service (IS) which provides a date of issue of 12/08/2020.

The first ISA formally signed between ACRO and the IS was 2017.

I have pleasure in providing you with a copy of the ISA referred to above with minor redaction of direct contact details and signatures. I wish to stress that these redactions have been made outside of the Freedom of Information legislative platform and no exemptions are engaged.
