FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE NUMBER: 271/2023

Thank you for your request for information regarding ACRO notifications; which has now been considered.

Applicant Question:

Last year you provided me with the attached response to a FoI question. Outside of the Act you answered some of my requests for information.

Could you again supply me with similar information to that which was supplied last year except that the figures should relate to 2022, and for the combined nationalities questions the answers should relate to the combined totals of the last three years, namely 2020, 2021 and 2022.

Please note that I do NOT require a response to Q.4 as this puts the request above the cost threshold.

NPCC Response:

The NPCC does hold information captured by your request and I have pleasure in providing that information to you in full.

COMPLAINT RIGHTS

Internal Review

If you are dissatisfied with the response you have been provided with, in compliance with the Freedom of Information legislation, you can lodge a complaint with NPCC to have the decision reviewed within 20 working days of the date of this response. The handling of your request will be looked at by someone independent of the original decision, and a fresh response provided.

It would be helpful, if requesting a review, for you to articulate in detail the reasons you are not satisfied with this reply.

If you would like to request a review, please write or send an email to NPCC Freedom of Information, c/o PO Box 481, Fareham, Hampshire, PO14 9FS.

If, after lodging a complaint with NPCC, you are still unhappy with the outcome, you may make an application to the Information Commissioner at the Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.

Annex A

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the NPCC, when refusing to provide information by way of exemption in question and (c) states why the exemption applies. In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 this letter acts as a refusal notice to those aspects of your request.

Legislation – Section 16

- (1) It shall be the duty of a public authority to provide advice and assistance, so far as it would be reasonable to expect the authority to do so, to persons who propose to make, or have made, requests for information to it.
