FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE NUMBER: 2473/2025

Thank you for your request for information regarding NPCC portfolios, which has now been considered.

Applicant Question:

I would like to identify members of your organization who have specific port folio's & responsibilities within the eleven broad coordination committees with each one being chaired by a Chief Constable.

Whilst I understand these posts would be fluid due to ongoing personnel changes etc. by all rank levels within the various committees it would be very much appreciated who specifically has an individual lead or leads within each category of the various coordination committees at this present time and of whose force they represent too within the NPCC.

NPCC Response:

The NPCC does hold recorded information captured by your request.

Please find attached NPCC Leads List which comprises all coordination committees, portfolios, working groups, sub working groups and others considered a 'national policing leads'. Whilst not specifically captured by your request, I thought it helpful if you were provided with a full list. Please note should you wish to contact any of the national policing leads, outside of the Freedom of Information Act, you can do so via info@npcc.police.uk

Please note that the attached has minor S40(2) Personal Information exemption engaged to those serving non-police officers and officers below Supt rank.

For further information relating to the legislation, please see Annex A.

Yours sincerely

COMPLAINT RIGHTS

Internal Review

Any request for an internal review will be acknowledged and responded to, based on the specific wording of your initial request only.

We ask that any rationale to request an internal review, does not include any requests for new information and ask that these be submitted by separate email. We will acknowledge as a new request and may aggregate to your initial request in compliance with the legislation.

If you are dissatisfied with the response you have been provided with in compliance with the Freedom of Information legislation, you can lodge a complaint with NPCC to have the decision reviewed within 40 working days of the date of this response.

The handling of your request will be looked at by someone independent of the original decision and a fresh response provided.

It would be helpful, if requesting a review, for you to articulate in detail the reasons you are not satisfied with this reply.

If you would like to request a review, please write or send an email to NPCC Freedom of Information, c/o PO Box 481, Fareham, Hampshire, PO14 9FS.

Annex A

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires the NPCC, when refusing to provide information by way of exemption in question and (c) states why the exemption applies. In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 this letter acts as a refusal notice to those aspects of your request.

The legislation: Section 40 Personal Information

(1) Any information to which a request for information relates is exempt information if it constitutes personal data of which the applicant is the data subject.

(2) Any information to which a request for information relates is also exempt information if
(a) it constitutes personal data which does not fall within subsection (1), and
(b) the first, second or third condition below is satisfied.

(3A) The first condition is that the disclosure of the information to a member of the public otherwise than under this Act—

(a) would contravene any of the data protection principles, or

(b) would do so if the exemptions in section 24(1) of the Data Protection Act 2018 (manual unstructured data held by public authorities) were disregarded.

(3B) The second condition is that the disclosure of the information to a member of the public otherwise than under this Act would contravene Article 21 of the GDPR (general processing: right to object to processing).

Any information to which a request for information relates is also exempt information if it constitutes personal data which do not fall within subsection (1), and either the first or the second condition is satisfied.

S40(2) applies to third party personal data. Any release would breach the data protection principles contained within the Data Protection Act 2018. S40(2) has been engaged by virtue of S40(3)(a)(i). Any disclosure of withheld information would breach the first data protection principle of fair and lawful processing.

This is an absolute exemption and there is no requirement to apply the public interest test.

Legislation – Section 16

(1) It shall be the duty of a public authority to provide advice and assistance, so far as it would be reasonable to expect the authority to do so, to persons who propose to make, or have made, requests for information to it.
